TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT, 1971

BUILDINGS OF SPECIAL ARCHITECTURAL OR HISTORIC INTEREST

TO: The Duke of Marlborough,
The Estate Office,
Blenheim Palace,
Woodstock,
Oxford.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the building known as
Combe Mill, Combe, Oxon. has been included in the list of buildings of special architectural or historic interest in that area, compiled by the Secretary of State for the Environment under Section 54 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971 on; 29th June 1988.

Dated: 18th May 1989.

Chief Executive
West Oxfordshire District Council

Council Offices
Woodgreen
Witney
Oxon. OX8 6NB

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Listing of Buildings of Special Architectural or Historic Interest

The above notice is addressed to you as owner or occupier of the building named, which has been included in one of the lists of buildings of special architectural or historic interest prepared under Section 54 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971, by the Secretary of State for the Environment. The lists are compiled by the Secretary of State as a statutory duty, on the advice of an expert committee of architects and historians which advises him on these matters.

This notice does not call for any action on your part unless you propose at any time to demolish the building or do any works (either to the exterior or to the interior) which would affect its character. In that event you will need to seek "Listed Building Consent", that is to say, the consent of the local planning authority (West Oxfordshire District Council) to the work you wish to do.

Certain buildings are exempt from this requirement, notably ecclesiastical buildings in use for the time being for ecclesiastical purposes.
